

Hey _____,

I just wanted to send you a quick message saying WELCOME to Team Go Getters. We are so happy to have you join our team. I would love to get you on the phone in the next 2 days to get you started off on the right foot and to learn what your WHY and goals are. Just let me know a few good times for you and we can schedule it ok? I attached a document called the quick start guide that I would love you to fill out and send back to me so we can go over it during our call.

Here are a few things to get you started as well

1. Join our Team Facebook group: TEAM INSPIRE NATION
2. Start the 14 Day New Coach Video Training.. you can subscribe here: <http://eepurl.com/zpE-n>

And thats it for right now :)

Looking forward to chatting with you soon
